FastTrac® GrowthVenture™ Program

REFUND POLICY

- Program fees of $1,100 are due by the first night of class unless alternate arrangements (such as credit card or scheduled payments) have been made. This program fee is nonrefundable.
- It is the policy of the Ewing Marion Kauffman Foundation of Kansas City and the INNOVA Commercialization Group in providing FastTrac® entrepreneurial education programs in West Virginia that program participants are not allowed to miss more than one weekly session.
- If you cannot complete the program, please discuss your individual circumstances with the Program Facilitator.
- No refunds will be granted because of expenditures and financial commitments made to provide this program. However, INNOVA wants everyone to have the opportunity to take the program and to graduate from FastTrac®. If a participant misses more than one session, future FastTrac® programs will be provided so that the participant can satisfy the program requirements and graduate. The program fee already paid will be applied to any future sessions needed to satisfy graduation requirements.
